What does recovery mean to you?

Capital Recovery Center is a recovery-oriented sanctuary where individuals with a substance use disorder and their loved ones can access peer support, information about substance use disorder treatment, recovery support services, information about other community resources, and participate in social and recreational activities in a supportive substance free environment.

Welcome to our living room!

Meeting Your Needs

We provide a variety of services such as:

- treatment navigation
- transportation
- housing assistance
- recovery housing
- utility assistance
- food assistance
- establishing vital documents
- connection to a recovery community
- recreational activities
- in-person meetings
- peer support services
- access to computers

Recovery Coaches

Meet with one of our recovery coaches and build a Recovery Management Plan tailored to your recovery needs.

You are not alone in your need for support! If someone you love has a substance use disorder or if you have lost a loved one to an overdose, join us for mutual support.
